atch for Mysterious Mr. Raffles-Worth $100 to You

When

much-w

Add quired

they bo

a should took his

Fan s u at Brooklyn Police Headquarters.

er and Sergt. Healy joined in a laugh, as ed to know at the same time why I was police telephone the Fifty-fourth and the Forty-fifth pre-

d Day's Adventures.

| Searching around Williamsburg for Capt. Reynolds. 1 explained that I had just come over the ferry, and thought it more than probable that Capt. Reynolds might live in the vicinity.

| Mysterious Mr. Raffles. | "Reynolds don't live within miles of here," returned capt. Gardner; "but wait a minute and we will find out for you."

sary for me to keep absolutely on my very minute of the dozen hours or more streets of Greater New York yesterday. parate occasions I thought the jig was to fit the day in Brooklyn, and, despite the re no disguise, I talked freely with two and one police sergeant, acted as peace-nily quarrel, rode on a number of trolley ith conductors, and event went to Flatgave the wife of a well-known newspaper for you."

Sergt. Healy then called up, the Forty-fourth Precination on the police telephone and learned that Capt. Sergt. Healy then gave me specific instructions as to just how to reach that address, whereupon, after thanking both officials for their courtesy, I walked quietly out of the station—and drew in several long breaths.

Taking the Broadway elevated as instructed by Sergt. Healy, I started for Gates avenue, where I started after another police official.

There is probably no man better known in police

Healy, I started for Gates avenue, where I started after another police official.

There is probably no man better known in police circles than Capt. Myles O'Reilly, the former Czar of the Tenderloin, now stationed at the Ralph avenue police station, otherwise known as the Fifty-first Precinct. Capt. Greelly enjoys the reputation of being more dreaded and feared by the crooks infesting New York than is any other man in the Matropolitan Police Department. His remarkable memory for faces, his clever ability to penetrate any manner of disguise, and the fact that, like Napoleon, he is never to be taken off his guard, have placed him practically in a class all by himself in New York police circles.

Yet I talked with Capt. Myles O'Reilly for ten minutes in his police bepartment to-day.

Capt. Gardner.

I his station Capt. Gardner was seated at Sergt. Healy. There was just one sharp of followed by an air of indifference, and n instant that I was free from detection mained in that station.

There is probably no man better known in police circles than Capt. Myles O'Reilly, the former Czar of the Tenderloin, now stationed at the Ralph avenue police station, otherwise known as the Fifty-first Precinct. Capt. Gardner day. There was a long and feared by the crooks infesting New York than is any other man in the Matropolitan Police Department. His remarkable memory for faces, his clever ability to penetrate any manner of disguise, and the fact that, like Napoleon, he is never to be taken off his quard, have placed him practically in a class all by himself in New York police circles.

Yet I talked with Capt. Myles O'Reilly for ten minutes in his police station, and then rode for a mile or more with him on an open trolley car, discussing passing events of the day—and Capt. Myles O'Reilly failed to recognize the Mysterious Mr. Raffles.

Capt. O'Reilly was getting ready to go to court when I arrived at his station, but when I explained I was a newspaper man looking for a story concerning three men who were locked up somewhere i my conversation to Capt. Gardner, I inould tell me the home address of Capt.

is, who was formerly in charge of the volunteered to lend me a hand in landing the story.

"But see here," cried Berry, looking more and more dismayed. "If you han be proved innocent" and find that I am innomit" and Frank, quickly.

"To all here. But it depends upon "And whose guilt?" asked Frank.

"And whose guilt?" asked Frank.

"To all here. But it depends upon "And whose guilt?" asked Frank.

"To all here. But it depends upon "And whose guilt?" asked Frank.

"To Be Continued.)

"The fiver fills that room, and those three are drowned!"

"It was an terrible to think of this that proves of Manchuria that proves your innocence."

"To Be Continued.)

"To Be Continued.)

"To Be Continued.)

and Hrooklyn Police Headquarters.

c and Serget Healy joined in a laugh, as men were clocked up, and he promptly called up on the ed to know at the same time why I was police telephone the Fifty-fourth and the Forty-fifth pre Scarlet Bat * By Fergus Hume

by the National Press Address and the prompt of the

The Mysterious Mr. Raffles.

Watch Him Turn Around,

This is the mysterious Mr. Raffles whose photograph appears daily in The Evening World. Each day a different view of his face will appear. Watch him turn around. He is walking, undisguised, about Greater New York. If you see him say:

YOU ARE THE MYSTERIOUS MR. RAFFLES OF THE EVENING WORLD."

He will admit his identity and accompany you to the business office of The World, where you will receive $100 reward for capturing him.

Margaret Hubbard Ayer Gets Advice for Weak Women from an Athletic Girl

The interior of a sold-bearing rock was inspected in an Oregon town by means of the Roentgen rays, and veins o sold were as plainly visible as if they had been on the surface.

followed by a spf/ se-off with alcohol and witch hazel.

Few people realize how bracing and and that this alcohol rub will brace her

During the day, if possible in the morning, the delicate woman should up tremendously. t

beneficial the external use of alcohol diet which Miss Gordon advises for our can be. A woman advancing in age will delicate patient and also seems sugges-all about it. If you have any doubts, just ask him.

In front of the Gates Avenue Police Court stood a number of detectives and newspaper men, many of whom I recognized. Capt. O'Reilly left the car at this point, and I continued on another block, getting off at Nostrand avenue. As I left the car Conductor No. 2062 dropped a penny in the street. I picked it up and handed it to him, for which he thanked me. The next place I struck was a little bakery shop. Intending to ask some fool questions of the proprietor, whom I noticed standing back of the counter, I bolted The owner is a large man, and was saying something in a low voice to a woman with a baby in her arms, whom I later discovered to be Mrs. Proprietor. I was just about to say something when she suddenly got busy and swatted her husband with a large custard pie. I promptly backed for the door, but before I had got out three more pies had followed the first. Mrs. Proprietor explained to the crowd which gathered that the liberty, row had started because her husband wanted her to do the cooking, and I made my escape. Two men noticed nie jotting down some notes and both asked "What carefully

Walking to Marcy avenue I took car No. 1620, which went somewhere, I'll never tell you where, but the conductor, No. 1106, gave me a transfer to Seventh avenue, and when I finally got off I was at Sixth avenue and had about eight blocks to walk to Garfield place, for I was trying to present my compliments to former Police Capt. Reynolds. He was not at home when I called, but according to a little girl who came to the door he was according to a little girl who came to the door he was according to a little girl who came to the door he was according to a little girl who came to the door he was according to a little girl who came to the door he was according to a little girl who came to the door he was a reconstituted back at noon I to work the new York and may be you will go home richer by $100.

Take a chance; walk up and say "You are the Mysterious Mr. Raffles of The Evening World!" If you pick the least the property of the streets of New York, and may be you will go home richer by $100. expected back at noon. It was then 10.30.

cincts, and made such inquiries as were necessary.

It is needless to say that I did not locate the three Anarchists.

When Capt. O'Reilly left the Ralph avenue police station I walked with him to Gates avenue, where we both boarded car No. 1826. On the way to the Gates Avenue Police Court Capt. O'Reilly explained to me in detail how the Japs managed to win such a sweeping victory from the Russians.

"You see, it was like this," began Capt. O'Reilly, "the Japs just followed the tactics of Gen. Grant and won out on a flank movement. Why, when we were storming the hills at Gettysburg, &c.,"—Capt. O'Reilly was in the civil war for four years and one month, and he knows all about it. If you have any doubts, just ask him.

In front of the Gates Avenue Police Court stood a name of the Gates Avenue Police Court stood a name of the Gates Avenue Police Court stood a name of the Gates Avenue Police Court stood a name of the Gates avenue car No. 1224, Conductor No. 3781.

So I got on a Seventh avenue car at Garfield place and went down to Fulton street. The car was No. 1222, and the conductor No. 4406. The latter gave me very explicit instructions as to how to reach Nostrand avenue car No. 3022, and was given a transfer to Nostrand avenue car No. 3527, in charge of Conductor No. 3248, carried me to Canarsie lane.

On the way back to the home of Capt. Reynolds I rode on Nostrand avenue car No. 1294, Conductor No. 3781.

Capt. Reynolds failed to come home at noon, and so I started back to Manhattan, taking a Fifth avenue elevated train at Union street to the Brooklyn Bridge, and the conductor No. 3248, carried me to Canarsie lane.

On the way back to the home of Capt. Reynolds I rode on Nostrand avenue car No. 1294, Conductor No. 3781.

Capt. Reynolds failed to come home at noon, and so I started back to Manhattan, taking a Fifth avenue elevated train at Union street to the Brooklyn Bridge, and the conductor No. 3248, carried me to Canarsie lane.

On the way back to the home of Capt. Reynolds I rode on Nostrand avenue car N then a Third avenue elevated train as far as Thirty-fourth street, where I stopped long enough to have luncheon in Wellbrock's restaurant, around the corner on Third avenue.

I strolled west along Thirty-fourth street until I I strolled west along Thirty-fourth street until I reached Macy's store, where twenty minutes of my time was spent and where I had a talk with R. H. Lee, manager of the hat department, about the possible purchase of 300 caps for friends of mine who were going to march in a labor parade.

I left Macy's and started up Broadway, walking slowly along until I reached the Hotel Cadillac, where for an hour I smoked in the lobby.

After supper at Mouquin's restaurant. Twenty-eighth street and Sixth avenue, I put in an hour and a half about the hotels and cafes along Broadway, between Twenty-third and Forty-second streets—and I am still at liberty.

It seems wonderful to me that I have not been recognized. I have sat in street cars and seen men and women carefully reading the story of my adventures and then had then stare at me in the most indifferent manner. Remember, I assume no disguise. The picture reproduced in The Evening World is an exact likeness of myself. All you have to do to win $100 is to keep your eyes open as you walk the street of New York you are nothing the loser.

MAY MANTON'S Daily Fashions

MANY of the best Patti stories are concerned with her early girl-hood in the United States, when she was beginning to realize the great hold she had on the public with her hold she had on the public with her boys been more becomingly than at present. Their masculine dignity is satisfied by the trousers of such pretty little suits no this one, attractive to the model illustrated is one of the very new ones that is par-ticularly charming made in galatea, linen and similar weather, but which also can be utilized like, shepherd's the very latest materials to be so

The trousers are made in genuine knickerbocker style, full at the knees and open at the sides, but the blouse is novel and front and centre back portions, which are arranged over the side portions, the underfaced edges making the effect of wide

The quantity of material required for a child of four years is $1-2 yards 27 yards 32 or 2 3-8 yards 44 inches wide.

Pattern 5059 is cut in sizes for boys of two and four years.

How to Obtain These Patterns. Evening World May Manton Fashions,

Evening World May Manton Fashions,

IMPORTANT—Wite your name and address plainly, and always,
ecity size wanted.

"I tell you, marriage takes all the

HIS SPEECH NOT SILVER. Mrs. Waunta Coyne—The parrot talks all the time.
Mr. Coyne—Tes, but he never asks for money.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROBLEM STAR VAUDEVILLE.

JAD AIL STAR VAUDEVILLE.

JOST. Bergain Mats. for Shoppers.

Cole and Johnson. Chas. Wayne and His "Inquistor Ciris." O Hylen and Havel, Sam Elkon, Murray and Lane. Searl and Violet Allen, Vernon, Mignani Family.

Xira Attraction. RUSSELL BROS.

TH "CHARLEY'S AUNT."

AV. With Henry Woodruff, Katherine Grey, Edense Girariot (specially ensaged). Big Cast. Souv. Mat. Mr. Woodruff's 100th Performance, Friday, June 2.

UTH JACOB ADLER is "SHYLJOK."

OST. Ja. Durkin, Grace Reals, Big Cast. Adley Mats. Mon. Tues. Weekler Cast.

Bat., 250. "CAMILLE" Matiness (Souvs.)

Thurnday and Friday, 250.

DITH "In the PALACE of the HING."

Miss Ryan, Mr. Wilson. etc. Daily Wilson at Matines To-Day.

Empire Last 8 Bys. 8.80, Mat. Sec. 2.20, Mulis Tempest in The Precion of Sumane.

HUDSON Eves 8,800 May Version of Sumane.

HUDSON Eves 8,800 May Version of Sumane.

NEW AMERICAN THE HEIRTOTHEHORAF

CAN COMEDY. THE HEIRTOTHEHORAF

ENICKERBOCKER. B'way & Sech. st.

FRANK DANIELS BERGEANT

FRANK DANIELS. BERGEANT

FRANK DANIELS. BERGEANT

FRANK DANIELS. BERGEANT her shoulders. A footstool is placed under the head of the reclining person and the body is raised, pivoting on the reducing a large abdomen, which, strange to say, is very often seen on persons of a weak physique. Where there is not sufficient strength to hold Herald Sq. THEATRE, B'way & 35th st. 16, Matines Saturday SAM BERNARD THE ROLLING CIRLL

> Matinee Every Day, 26c, and 50c. matinto Druy Duy, save man over hatire Change of Bill Each Week. y Evening Good Reserved Seats, 50; y Yohe and inam Bradles one; nucle Sisters, gene Cowles, il M. Cressy and The Two Bostons. Hengier Sisters, Hengier Sisters, Eugene Cowles, Will M. Cressy and Blanche Dayne.

> ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
>
> LAST Outney Adams Sawyer. LAST MAT. SATURDAY AT 2. EVE., 8.13.
> WEEK MMC. SCHumann-Heink
> TOYE'S LOTTERY, Seats now on sale.

> North Beach

When Patti Was a Qirl.

voice. After a concert in which she supper was given to the singers, at which many nobilities, including Judge Matthews, were present. Supper over, Judge Matthews pressed little Adelina to sing. Adelina, however, showed no inclination to oblige, so Matthews, in desperation, said, "Sing, and I'll do anything you like."

"Anything?" asked Patti. "Anything." repeated the grave lawyer, decisively. So the little girl sung "Home, Sweet Home." Hardly had she given the last note, however, than she said, "Now, Mr. Matthews, please stand on your head!" "You're joking, child," gasped the judge. "A bargain's a bargain," murmured the future diva. "Well," said Matthews, "here goes"—and up went his feet, amid the frantic applause of the company.

$100,000 Bedroom.

T Knole, Sevenoaks, Kent, England, the residence of Lord Sack-ville, there is a room called the king's bedroom, containing a bed made for James I, that cost $40,000, a solid silver table, a toilet service of silver valued at $5,000 and many other treasures that entailed the expenditure of much gold ($100,000, in point of fact) when the apartment was furnished in the precious white metal.

AMUSEMENTS.

HIPPODROME Management THOMPSON & DUNDY.
"YANKEE CIRCUS ON MARS"
and "THE RAIDERS." MATINEES EVERY DAY. LUNA PARK Automobiles leave Post Card Stores, B'way & 22d St., Dally, 6.30 P. M. Sun-days, 2, 4, 0.30 P. M. Phone 2399 Gramero;

ceptive

portrai

Raffles

tory !

MILITARY DAY TO-DAY.

PASTOR'S CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS CONTINUOUS COMPANY COMPANY COMPANY COMPANY CONTINUOUS COMPANY CONTINUOUS CONTIN

48 DREAMLAND

LYRIC Mat. Sat. 160th time To-Night, S.15 NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE De ANGELIS - FANTANA

Clonial, Bway & 684, DallyMat. 28e, Albert Chevaller, Bedini & Arthur Dalmore, Lee, Transallantic Four, Dalmore, Abolinson, Missee Delmore. ATLANTIC GARDEN, Bowery, nr. Cana A Hoppe, Norton Russell, Walton Sisters, Moving Pictures, Eschert's Orchestra.

BIJOU BY S. 6.16. Last Mat. Sat. at 2. BIJOU DAVID RELASCO Presents LAST 4 WARFIELD In Wasie Master. Keith's and Archards, Mrs. Alca Davenport. 25c. 50c. 31.

EDEN WORLD IN WAX. New Groups
Of IN RM A TO GRAP II.
Charmins music. Xtra attractions STAR The Black Mask. Grand Williams & Walker

NEW YORK HOOF—Always Pleasant Glass Inclosed DAMROSCH Night GMC-RTS.

3 DAV. Sist & 3d Av. MATINEE TO-DAY. Windser, Bowery, nr. Canal. Matines Saturday VORKVILLE, S6th, Lexay, THE SILVER

By Margaret Hubbard Aver

keeping strong and young and all are beginning to awaken to the that this happy condition depends by on regular physical so much about what phy-an do that it is a relief on who illustrates what Waitrosses WORLD HELP WANTS Miss Belle Gordon, "the athletic girl," who is now appearing at Keith's Theatre, is an astonishing example of perfected physical womenhood, starting from the most unpromising conditions.

Miss Gordon, as she says herself, was inclined to pulmonary trouble and generally very weak. She is now considered to have a perfect physique, and, n her own language, is as "strong as

STRENGTHENING THE SPINAL COLUMN

A horse."

Miss Gordon has a dainty rounded figure, curved and full and without a suggestion of the suggest which underlies the soft tiscure. Succeeding the soft tiscure is consumptionathreatened girl to a perfect specimen of physical womanhood. This is Miss Gordon's advice to weak women:

The first thing for the weak woman to do is to clear all unnecessary hangings out of her bed chamber, and to keep the windows open day and night. Then ist her take a walk every morning early, the earlier the better. Staying in bed late doesn't do very much good but early to bed does. So it's early to bed and early to rise.

The wilk should not be a very long one at first; in fact the west woman should not be a very long one at first; in fact the west woman should not fattype herself at any of the a horse."

girl. Stand with your back to the beir, arms classing the chair on either side. Move the chest backward and forward, bringing the shoulders back late place. The round-shouldered girl usually has a weak back and the extereise for strengthening the spinal coltina will also help her to straight-

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children. The first is for the round-shouldered The Kind You Have Always Bought

REDUCING THE ABDOMEN.

heels.
The third exercise shows a way body erect the chest falls in and there is a sagging of all the abdominal To-morrow I will tell you about the